

PROFILE

Omar Dyer as a business mogul, and political entrepreneur he built a resume in writing.

- He has a self-proclaimed nomination to the Noble Awards, with a Noble Prize in Peace.
- In 2007, he interned for Microsoft, and iTunes and helped develop the software's promotion.
- In 2008, he became a stakeholder in Facebook, and helped developed Facebook Watch.
- In 2009 he ran in the Gubernatorial race in New Jersey.
- In 2011, Omar Dyer helped manage Occupy Wall Street, and got the honor of Time Magazine's Person of The Year.
- Omar Dyer built Mad Comedian in 217.
- He then built Bruh You Didn't Know I am The Joke in 2021
- And the Omar Dyer Blockchain is 2024.

OMAR DYER

Founder & CEO

Biography

Omar Dyer is from Hoboken New Jersey, and currently lives in Jersey City NJ. He has a long career in Arts & Entertainment, with a short-lived career in politics.

In the late 90s as a child local in notary, Omar Dyer was a key component in the rebuilding of the waterfront in New Jersey, more importantly Hudson County. Omar Dyer was a member of Arts On The Waterfront, and received 2 citations from Mayor Russo, and Assemblymen Garcia.

Omar Dyer attended Oregon University, before leaving and transferring into Sait Petter's University. In the late 2000s Omar Dyer completed his educational journey at the Children's Institution of Literature, and Kaplan University.

Here is where he earned an Associates Degree in Children's Literature, an Associates degree in Child Development, a Bachelor Degree in Technical Communication, and a Master Degree in Legal Studies.